Over 25 Years of Excellence in Autism Publishing

2022 CATALOG

Dear Friend,

Future Horizons was created to meet the needs of teachers, therapists, and family members who face the challenge of autism. Our books, videos, and conferences bring you the most current information possible to aid in that challenge.

It is our strong belief that every child and adult with autism can improve and contribute to the lives of those who love them and, just as importantly, contribute to society.

We at Future Horizons pride ourselves in bringing to the mission not only a strong sense of professionalism, but one that is based on personal relationships. All of us have family members or friends who are affected.

Future Horizons would not exist today without two very special men. The first is my brother, Alex, whom I had the pleasure of growing up with as I watched him develop into a fine young man. Alex was a light that lit up lives wherever he went.

Alex Gilpin

Whether working with TEACCH in North Carolina, speaking at conferences, attending family gatherings he enjoyed so much, or working in the jobs he held, his delightful sense of humor, courtesy, and caring improved the lives of all who knew him. You could not help but smile back at his infectious grin and I never heard him say an unkind word about anyone.

R. Wayne Gilpin

Alex is the genesis for this company. My father, R. Wayne Gilpin, was the man who brought the company to life. After writing the book inspired by Alex, Laughing and Loving with Autism, he found other materials that needed a good publisher. From there, he lovingly grew the company over twenty years to the powerhouse it is today.

Both men are sorely missed. Their passion for life and love of learning lives on through this company. Thank you for being a part of it.

Jennifer Gilpin Yacio

About Future Horizons

Future Horizons was founded in 1996 with the mission of sharing information about autism and Asperger's syndrome through books and conferences. In 2010 we added a subsidiary, Sensory World, focused solely on sensory issues experienced by those with autism or Sensory Processing Disorder (SPD). Our purpose is spreading knowledge that better the lives of those who live and work with these conditions. Devoted to supporting and fostering these works, Future Horizons is proud to have become the world leader in publications and conferences on both autism spectrum disorders and sensory issues.

The Loving Push, New Edition

How Parents and Professionals Can Help Spectrum Kids Become Successful Adults

NEW EDITION!

Temple Grandin, PhD & Debra Moore, PhD | 978-1-949177-74-9 | $19⁹⁵

This is an essential roadmap to prepare spectrum youth for being successful adults. Dr. Temple Grandin joins psychologist and autism specialist Dr. Debra Moore in describing the steps you can take to restore your child's hope and motivation—and what you must avoid. Includes eight life stories told by people on the autism spectrum, and chapters on how to find a path to a successful, meaningful life.

Autism Parent Handbook

Start with the End Goal in Mind

Raun Melmed, MD & Wendela Marsh, MA, BCBA, RSD
978-1-949177-66-4

$16⁹⁵

NEW

Once a diagnosis of autism is made, you need a compassionate and optimistic guide for the early years and beyond. The way to ensure success is to begin with the end goals in mind. Productive adults regulate their emotions, manage their time, cope with change, make wise choices, and accept responsibility for their actions. We illustrate how to help children develop these skills. Where to start? Right here.

Unwritten Rules of Social Relationships

Second Edition

Decoding Social Mysteries Through Autism's Unique Perspectives

Temple Grandin, PhD
& Sean Barron
978-1-941765-38-8

$19⁹⁵

Born with autism, authors Temple Grandin and Sean Barron now live successful social lives—but their paths were very different. Temple's logical mind led her to obey social rules, while Sean's emotions controlled his social behavior. Baffled by social rules, he made up his own, and applied them to others.

Temple Grandin: The Stories I Tell My Friends

Anita Lesko, BSN, RN, MS, CRNA

978-1-941765-60-9 | $18⁹⁵

Prepare to meet a whole new side of Temple! Her close friend and author, Anita Lesko, conducts personal interviews that reveal new perspectives of the woman we all know and admire. Discover what Temple believes makes the most profound difference for children with autism. Lesko has created a truly personal, unique look into the mind and life of Temple Grandin.

The Way I See It

Fifth Edition

A Personal Look at Autism & Asperger's

Temple Grandin, PhD
978-1-949177-31-2

$19⁹⁵

NEW EDITION

In this beloved updated and expanded classic book, Dr. Temple Grandin gets to the REAL issues of autism—the ones parents, teachers, and individuals on the spectrum face every day and serves as an excellent reference resource for a multitude of topics related to ASD.

FOCUS ON

Temple Grandin, PhD

The World's Most Famous Person with Autism

Diagnosed with autism as a child, Temple eventually contradicted her doctors' morbid predictions to become one of the autism community's most beloved success stories. She is a popular international lecturer and the author of Emergence: Labeled Autistic, Thinking in Pictures, and The Way I See It. One of the world's leading experts in livestock facility design, over half of the cattle in North America are handled in facilities designed by her. Temple credits her visual thinking and her systemizing mind—both characteristics of autism—for her ability to be "the woman who thinks like a cow." Her website is www.templegrandin.com.

Thinking in Pictures

My Life with Autism

Temple Grandin, PhD
978-0-307275-65-3
$18⁰⁰ 📖

Writing from the dual perspectives of a scientist and a person with autism, Temple tells us how autism is experienced by its inhabitants and how she breached its boundaries to function in the outside world. What emerges is the document of an extraordinary person—one who, in bridging the gulf between her condition and our own, sheds light on the riddle of our common identity.

The Autistic Brain

Thinking Across the Spectrum

Temple Grandin, PhD
978-0-544227-73-6
$15⁹⁵

Grandin introduces the neuroimaging advances and genetic research that link brain science to behavior. She also highlights long-ignored sensory problems and the transformative effects we can have by treating autism symptom by symptom, rather than with an umbrella diagnosis. Most exciting, she shows us new ways to foster the unique contributions of children on the spectrum.

Temple Talks ... about Autism and Sensory Issues

The World's Leading Expert on Autism Shares Her Advice and Experiences

Temple Grandin, PhD
978-1-935567-42-4
$9⁹⁵ 📖 📱 📺

It's your pocket guide to Temple Grandin; a great introduction to her thoughts and advice on both autism and sensory issues! Temple gives an overview of what it is like to have autism and sensory difficulties, tells how she overcame her sensory issues, gives useful tips, then answers your questions in an easy-to-reference Q&A.

Different Not Less

Inspiring Stories of Achievement and Successful Employment from Adults with Autism, Asperger's, and ADHD

Temple Grandin, PhD
978-1-949177-47-3
$19⁹⁵ 📖 📱 📺

Temple Grandin offers the world an inspiring and informative book that offers both hope and encouragement to people with ASD and ADHD. She presents the personal success stories of fourteen unique individuals who illustrate the extraordinary potential of those on the autism spectrum. In this updated and revised edition, the contributors tell their own story in their own words about their lives, relationships, careers, and where they are now.

$14⁹⁵ 📖 📱 📺 📖

This children's book can help guide and inspire all kids to reach their full potential. It explains the obstacles Temple faced while growing up, then gives the rules she followed to overcome them and become a leading animal scientist. Includes worksheets for kids to identify and reach their goals. Introduction by Dr. Temple Grandin.

Autism & Us: Old As Time

Take a Journey through History and Watch Culture Renew Itself

Eustacia Cutler
978-1-949177-90-9
$19⁹⁵ 📖 📱 📺

Autism and Us: Old As Time, is a collection of essays written to take the reader on a journey through history, examining the impact of autism on the opinions and solutions of writers, poets, and other prominent individuals from the early 19th century through today. Ms. Cutler describes our ever-evolving capacity—as individuals and as a society—to keep re-inventing ourselves. She views autism as the phoenix: that ancient symbol of culture renewing itself.

MAY

Recognizing Autism in Women and Girls

When It Has Been Hidden Well

Wendela Whitcomb Marsh | 978-1-949177-84-8 | $19⁹⁵

Autism looks different in women and girls. They're much better at "pretending to be normal" by masking their autistic characteristics. This book provides the perspective needed to see how autism manifests in gendered ways, allowing for a more accurate diagnosis. The "Behind the Mask" section provides helpful questions to ask during the autism assessment process to allow the professional to recognize well-hidden autism. Each chapter contains accounts by autistic women who describe their personal journeys from masking to diagnosis, and what it meant to them.

A Parent's Guide to Early Intervention

A Comprehensive Model for Children with Special Needs

Alex Liao | 978-1-949177-73-2 | $24⁹⁵

Do you have a confirmed or suspected diagnosis of autism spectrum disorder (ASD) or related special needs for your child? This book will help you navigate the question with simple step-by-step processes. The Comprehensive Model for Early Intervention (CMEI) was developed by Alex Liao, who has worked with children with special needs for the past 15 years. Alex has combined his experiences in working with parents worldwide in crafting early intervention plans for children with special needs to teach parents.

Uniquely Normal

Tapping the Reservoir of Normalcy to Treat Autism

Robert J. Bernstein with Robin Cantor-Cooke | 978-1-941765-46-3 | $19⁹⁵

Here's a different approach based on cognition thinking in helping people of all ages with autism. The goal is to help people with ASD connect with other people as themselves, to express their unique humanity, and engage more fully in the human interactions that give life meaning. Therapy must be on the ASD person's terms; he or she must lead. Therapy examples are categorized by age groups from toddler to adult.

Dogs & Autism

Annie Bowes, DVM
978-1-941765-90-6

$14⁹⁵

Dogs speak autism. Author and veterinarian Annie Bowes discovered at a young age that having a dog was invaluable. She discusses the human-pet connection, finding the right dog for your home, and the countless ways the understanding, acceptance, and boundless love of a dog benefits everyone—particularly those with autism.

Autism Is the Future

The Evolution of a Different Type of Intelligence

Marlo Payne Thurman, PhD
978-1-941765-89-0

$16⁹⁵

People with autism think and learn differently than neurotypicals—so why are we measuring intelligence with the same tools? Marlo Thurman proposes that sensory and cognitive development have evolved together into a very different form of intelligence in those with ASD, and it should be viewed not as a disability but instead as a difference to be celebrated and followed.

Ten Things Your Student with Autism Wishes You Knew

Tony Attwood, PhD & Craig Evans | 978-1-941765-80-7 | $19⁹⁵

Dr. Tony Attwood and Craig Evans are proud to introduce their first book together. Previously, they brought you "Autism Hangout": a question-and-answer style video series in which Dr. Tony directly addresses the most pressing questions of those touched by autism. Now, this unstoppable duo has refreshed these conversations and converted them into book form, creating an invaluable resource to keep helpful information present and available to the public. Their goal? Thriving with autism!

Exploring Feelings

Cognitive Behaviour Therapy to Manage ANGER

Tony Attwood, PhD
978-1-932565-21-8

$19⁹⁵

Winner of a Teachers' Choice Award! This book provides a guide for caregivers, and the workbook portion asks children to identify situations that trigger their anger. Listing possible responses to situations—and the likely outcomes—allows the child to make informed decisions about which responses to choose (e.g., walking away vs. hitting).

Exploring Feelings

Cognitive Behaviour Therapy to Manage ANXIETY

Tony Attwood, PhD
978-1-932565-22-5

$19⁹⁵

Winner of a Teachers' Choice Award! Anxiety can be especially confusing for a child. But learning about emotions, and the effects they can have on the body, helps children recognize the connections between thinking and feeling. In this workbook, children identify situations that make them anxious—and then learn how to perceive them differently.

 978-1-885477-36-1
$39⁹⁵

Providing a cornucopia of ideas, the authors address sensory, communication, and physical and social-emotional issues by increasing desired behaviors and decreasing unwanted behaviors. You will learn how to build "sensory diets" into everyday activities, use antecedent control, teach students to self-regulate, and deal with problem behaviors. You'll also learn crisis, stress, and data management. Whatever problems you face, you'll find helpful solutions to them in this book.

Hope for the Violently Aggressive Child

New Diagnoses and Treatments That Work

Ralph Ankenman, MD
 978-1-935274-87-2
$19⁹⁵

Dr. Ralph Ankenman presents new diagnoses and treatment options for children who have severe disruptive meltdowns at home or school. Referred to as Immature Adrenaline Systems Overreactivity (IASO), this approach is based on the relationship between aggression and the body's adrenaline systems. Therefore, IASO does not require psychotropic drugs and reduces or eliminates psychotropic drugs from a child's regimen. IASO stops episodes of violence and aggression in patients with autism, and also many with no mental health diagnosis at all. Standard drugs often do not fully resolve these behaviors and lead to unnecessary side effects.

Autism and Depression

A Workbook for Adolescents and Adults

Katie Saint, PhD, LPC, BCBA-D & Carlos Torres, BS

978-1-949177-46-6 | $14⁹⁵

This workbook can help people with ASD who struggle with depression. It is designed to identify individual values, celebrate personality traits, gain perspective, set goals, and is aimed to help people live fulfilling lives. The book also has skill-building activities to address common skills that lead to living a depression free life.

Anxiety Management for Kids on the Autism Spectrum

Your Guide to Preventing Meltdowns and Unlocking Potential

Christopher Lynch, PhD
978-1-941765-98-2

$16⁹⁵

Anxiety can be overwhelming for children with autism. However, it doesn't need to be. With this clear and comprehensive guide, parents, teachers, and therapists can take a crucial step towards managing anxiety, thereby relieving distress and unlocking potential.

Overcoming Anxiety in Children & Teens

Jed Baker, PhD | 978-1-941765-14-2 | $14⁹⁵

This book outlines both the science and art of anxiety therapy. The science of overcoming anxiety is using the well-researched approach called gradual exposure therapy, which involves helping individuals gradually face their fears. The art of therapy is figuring out how to actually convince someone to face their fears. Jed describes motivational techniques, cognitive behavioral strategies, exercises, relaxation, and mindfulness guides to lower anxiety so individuals can begin to confront their fears.

It could happen at the grocery store, a restaurant, school, or home. Meltdowns are stressful for both child and adult, but Dr. Baker can help! His 20+ years of experience has yielded time-tested strategies and amazing results. An easy-to-follow model will improve your everyday relationships with the children in your life: 1) managing your own emotions by adjusting your expectations, 2) learning strategies to calm a meltdown in the moment, 3) understanding why a meltdown occurs, and 4) creating plans to prevent future meltdowns.

No More Victims

Protecting Those with Autism from Cyber Bullying, Internet Predators, and Scams

Jed Baker, PhD
978-1-935274-92-6

$14⁹⁵

The digital world offers a wonderful way to communicate and socialize with others. Yet it is also rife with dangers of being victimized emotionally, physically, and financially—especially for individuals with autism spectrum disorders. In this much-needed book, Dr. Baker addresses three main areas of concern for our kids: cyber bullying, online sexual predators, and Internet scams. Through Dr. Baker's invaluable advice, kids will learn what to look out for, whom to avoid, and how to protect themselves when they're communicating online.

FACTS AT A GLANCE: Autism and Emotions

“... we looked into the overlap between autism and alexithymia, a condition defined by a difficulty understanding and identifying one's own emotions. People with high levels of alexithymia (which we assess with questionnaires) might suspect they are experiencing an emotion, but are unsure which emotion it is. They could be sad, angry, anxious or maybe just overheated. About 10 percent of the population at large—and about 50 percent of people with autism—has alexithymia.”

This book explains and describes depression, the forms it can take, and how it looks and feels for a person with ASD. The authors draw on the latest research to suggest strategies for coping with the effects of depression. They also provide a complete step-by-step Cognitive Behavioral Therapy self-help program, designed specifically for individuals with ASD. The program helps increase self-awareness and provides tools to combat depression.

Hope for the Violently Aggressive Child

New Diagnoses and Treatments That Work

Ralph Ankenman, MD
978-1-935274-87-2

$19⁹⁵

Dr. Ralph Ankenman presents new diagnoses and treatment options for children who have severe disruptive meltdowns at home or school. Referred to as Immature Adrenaline Systems Overreactivity (IASO), this approach is based on the relationship between aggression and the body's adrenaline systems. Therefore, IASO does not require psychotropic drugs and reduces or eliminates psychotropic drugs from a child's regimen. IASO stops episodes of violence and aggression in patients with autism, and also many with no mental health diagnosis at all. Standard drugs often do not fully resolve these behaviors and lead to unnecessary side effects.

A Social Story for the Rest of Us

Carol Gray | 978-1-949177-51-0
$14⁹⁵

For 30 years, parents and professionals have been writing Social Stories for those with autism. Here's one for the rest of us! In A Social Story for the Rest of Us, Carol uses her expertise and experience as an autism consultant to describe what "the rest of us" need to know about autism and those that live with it.

The Sixth Sense II

Sharing Information about Autism Spectrum Disorders with General Education Students

Carol Gray | 978-1-885477-90-3
$6⁹⁵

This unique lesson plan was developed to share information about autism with general education students and explain behaviors that might otherwise be misinterpreted as frightening, odd, or rude. Activities focus on how other people see, hear, touch, taste, and smell, and how that can affect the way they feel and think.

Comic Strip Conversations

Illustrated Interactions That Teach Conversation Skills to Students with Autism and Related Disorders

Carol Gray | 978-1-885477-22-4 | $9⁹⁵

Carol Gray combines stick figures with "conversation symbols" to illustrate what people say and think during conversations. Children can recognize that, although people say one thing, they may think something quite different—a concept foreign to "concrete-thinking" children. Children can draw their own "comic strips" to show what they are thinking and feeling about events or people. A great tool!

Social Engagement & the Steps to Being Social

A Practical Guide for Teaching Social Skills to Individuals with Autism Spectrum Disorder

Kathleen Mo Taylor, OTR/L & Marci Laurel, MA, CCC-SLP
978-1941765-10-4
$19⁹⁵

This book is a unique, visual, and easy-to-use model that was developed to guide assessment and intervention across severity levels and age groups for individuals with autism. It defines social engagement in observable language and breaks down social skills into a series of clearly defined steps. Each step is further broken down into pivotal skills that can be taught directly, and matched with evidence-based practices to support teaching and learning. Case studies help illuminate concepts discussed at each step and sample activities are provided to support immediate real-world application.

FACTS AT A GLANCE: Autism and Social Skills

"All of these social skills problems are rooted in some of the basic elements of ASD:

- Delays and difficulty in acquiring verbal communication skills
- Inability to read non-verbal communication cues
- Repetitive or obsessive behaviors and insistence on an adherence to fixed routine
- Overwhelming sensory inputs

These combinations of traits make it enormously difficult for ASD patients to acquire the basic social skills that most of us take for granted.

This deficit is often misread as a desire to avoid people or social situations, but that couldn't be further from the truth: most individuals with ASD badly want to interact with others, they simply don't have the skillset to do so easily.

This, in turn, can breed frustration that only fuels the fire. People on the spectrum may have outbursts and throw tantrums or express themselves inappropriately in social contexts, essentially as a result of boiling over at their difficulty to either understand their place in a social situation or make themselves understood to others."

Overcoming Anxiety in Children & Teens

Jed Baker, PhD
978-1-941765-14-2

$14⁹⁵

The key to this book is that it outlines both the science and art of anxiety therapy. The science of overcoming anxiety is using the well-researched approach called gradual exposure therapy, which involves helping individuals gradually face their fears. The art of therapy is figuring out how to actually convince someone to face their fears. Jed describes motivational techniques, cognitive behavioral strategies, exercises, relaxation, and mindfulness guides to lower anxiety to the point where individuals can begin to confront their fears.

School Shadow Guidelines

Jed Baker, PhD & Alex Liu
Whatt Meng
978-1-941765-11-1

$14⁹⁵

Your child may find it difficult to adapt to new surroundings and learning environments from time to time. School Shadow Guidelines helps guide your child to develop appropriate behaviors in school, establish an environment that helps to strengthen academic ability, and also build up on his/her social interaction skills with the goal of independence. Special-needs children can benefit from having inclusive education to aid in their development and growth; this is where school shadowing serves vital roles.

The Social Skills Picture Book for High School and Beyond

Jed Baker, PhD
978-1-932565-35-5

$39⁹⁵

Winner of an iParenting Media Award, this picture book appeals to the visual strengths of students with autism. It uses color photos of students demonstrating various social skills in the correct (and sometimes incorrect) way. "Thought bubbles" show what people think during these interactions (not always what you hoped!). Practical, engaging, and down-to-earth, this is a valuable tool to help teens navigate the mysterious rules of social conduct in everyday situations.

Social Skills Training For Children and Adolescents with Asperger Syndrome

Jed Baker, PhD
978-1-931282-20-8 | $29⁹⁵

Jed Baker translates years of experience working with students with Asperger's Syndrome and social-communication difficulties. Introductory chapters feature skills to target, instructional strategies, behavior management, and promoting generalization. The essence of this must-have resource is the inclusive skill section: 70 skills that often cause difficulty for individuals with autism spectrum disorders and social-communication problems. The presentation of each skill consists of a reproducible skill handout, as well as activity sheets listing ways teachers and parents can demonstrate, practice, and reinforce the skill in the classroom and at home. A concluding chapter on promoting peer acceptance offers sensitivity training programs for both students of various age groups and school staff, making this a complete social skills training package for students of all ages.

Be a Friend CD Songs for Social Skills Training

Included are helpful tracks such as "Personal Space," "Eye Contact," "Sharing," "Making Mistakes," "Calm Down," "Feelings," and more. This CD complements Jed Baker's Social Skills Picture Book perfectly!

The Social Skills Picture Book

*Teaching Play, Emotion, and Communication to Children
with Autism*

Jed Baker, PhD | 978-1-885477-91-0 | $39⁹⁵

Winner of an iParenting Media Award, this book uses images of students engaging in a variety of real-life social situations. Color photographs illustrate the "right way" and "wrong way" to approach each situation—and the positive/negative consequences of each. An adult then explains each situation, asking questions such as, "What is happening here?" Children can role-play skills until they are confident enough to practice them in real life.

Studies show that the most important skills to learn in the beginning of the year are social: cooperation, self-control, confidence, independence, curiosity, empathy, and communication. ... Help your child develop essential social and emotional skills by making connections with school friends at home. ... This relationship can then carry over to the classroom setting. Once there is a connection to one child in the classroom, more are soon to follow!

Video Modeling

Visual-Based Strategies Demonstrated to Help People on the Autism Spectrum

Stephen Lockwood, BCBA | 978-1-941765-58-6 | $9⁹⁵

Video modeling is an instructional teaching technique that utilizes assistive technology and videos as the primary vehicle. It is a strategy that has applications regardless of ability or age. It has a growing research base and can be used to teach a variety of skills to people with autism spectrum disorder, including social and play skills. As early as the 1980s, video modeling was identified an efficient teaching tool; however, the technology available today makes this technique invaluable and essential in teaching. This book covers the process of developing, implementing, and assessing video modeling for learners with autism to increase independence, facilitate learning, and improve quality of life.

FOCUS ON

Carol Stock
Kranowitz, MA

Author of the Groundbreaking
Book The Out-of-Sync Child

Author of the best-selling Out-of-Sync Child book series, Carol has been a preschool teacher for more than 25 years. As she taught music, movement, and drama to her students, she observed that many kids seemed "out of sync." To help them become more competent in work and play, she began studying sensory processing and sensory integration (SI) theory. She learned to help identify her students' needs and to steer them into early intervention. In writings and workshops in the U.S. and abroad, she explains how sensory issues play out—and provides fun and functional techniques for addressing them at home and school.

Shirley Sutton, BSc, OT

978-1-935567-45-5 | $29⁹⁵

Written by three experienced occupational therapists, this book offers a combination of theory and strategies. It is a perfect tool for those working with young children, but also broad enough to be adapted for older children and adults. Building Bridges provides creative techniques and useful tips, while offering innovative strategies and practical advice for dealing with everyday challenges. Part one explains the role of occupational therapists in treatment and examines sensory integration theories. Part two offers methods of identifying sensory problems in children, along with numerous strategies and activities.

Teen Guide to Sensory Issues

Rachel Schneider, MA, MHC
978-1-949177-41-1

$17⁹⁵

NEW

It's hard to be a teen! It's even more challenging when we have sensory differences. People with Sensory Processing Disorder (SPD), a newly identified neurological condition, as well as those with an Autism Spectrum Disorder (ASD), are frequently misunderstood by others. Rachel Schneider breaks the challenges of a sensory teenagehood into hilarious, thoughtful, and manageable sections for teens and the people who love them.

Making Sense

A Guide to Sensory Issues

Rachel Schneider, MA, MHC
978-1-935567-56-1

$14⁹⁵

Our brains are constantly flooded with information, and some of us cannot easily process what we're sensing. People with Sensory Processing Disorder (SPD) and those with an Autism Spectrum Disorder (ASD) are misunderstood when they over- or under-react to sound, sight, smell, taste, touch, movement, and balance. This guide, written by a mental health counselor who has SPD, will answer your questions about life with sensory differences.

Starting Sensory Therapy offers 100+ activities and games for children with sensory processing disorder (SPD). Parent of a son with SPD, author Bonnie Arnwine chose activities that require minimal time, money, and clean-up. Most "ingredients" are already on hand: empty yogurt cups, string, soap, Kool-aid, flour, paper plates, etc. If the kids tire of an activity, an "Extend It!" section shows how to use the same ingredients in new and different ways.

The Ultimate Guide to Sensory Processing Disorder

Easy, Everyday Solutions to Sensory Challenges

Roya Ostovar, PhD

978-1-935274-07-0 | $19⁹⁵

When sensory processing is impaired, lights can be too bright, sounds too loud, and clothes can actually be painful on the skin. It can be practically impossible for children to tolerate their day, let alone learn in a classroom. In this book, neuropsychologist Dr. Roya Ostovar helps parents to help their children. She provides clear explanations, up-to-date research, step-by-step strategies, and case examples that bring her proven methods to life.

Feed Your Baby & Toddler Right
Early eating and drinking skills encourage the best development

Diane Bahr, MS, CCC-SLP
978-1-941765-67-8
$14⁹⁵

Most of our eating and drinking skills are developed in the first two years of life. Parents often receive little instruction on ways to feed their children, yet good consumption skills encourage the best mouth development and set up patterns for life. This book reveals secrets for better breast/bottle feeding, and development for babies and toddlers.

A Thorn in My Pocket
Temple Grandin's Mother Tells the Family Story

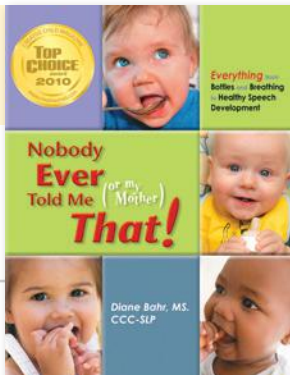

Eustacia Cutler
978-1-941765-40-1
$14⁹⁵

This book is Eustacia Cutler's story of raising her daughter, Temple Grandin, in the Leave it to Beaver world of the fifties, a time when children with autism were routinely diagnosed as "infant schizophrenics" and banished to institutions. She tells of her fight to keep Temple in the mainstream and how Temple went on to succeed, as Ms. Cutler puts it, "beyond my wildest dreams." Ms. Cutler also explores the nature of autism as doctors understand it today, and how its predominant characteristics reflect our own traits in an exaggerated form.

Nobody Ever Told Me (or My Mother) That!

Diane Bahr, MS, CCC-SLP
978-1-935567-20-2
$24⁹⁵

This fascinating book fills a missing void in the child-rearing world. It explains everything from the basics of nursing, to SIDS, to facial massage, and finishes with the secrets to good speech development and keys to enhancing your child's best natural appearance. Written by a speech-language pathologist with more than 30 years of experience, this book is a wealth of necessary information for any new parent. It contains practical advice for all new parents on everything they need to know about oral development from birth to 8 years old.

Sensory Parenting: The Elementary Years

School Years Are Easier When Your Child's Senses Are Happy!

Britt Collins, MS, OTR/L & Jackie Olson
978-1-935567-41-7
$19⁹⁵

A child's sensory system affects their ability to learn, play, socialize, and function. Maybe a child isn't able to sit still in class because his shirt tag is bothering him. Or a child isn't able to play with other children because his balance is off and other kids make him feel unstable and dizzy. Beginning with the age of five, Britt and Jackie walk parents through everyday situations and duties all the way through your child's elementary years. They explain the underlying reasons beneath your child's negative behaviors and the often simple fixes (sometimes not so easy, but steps that will lead you towards success). Parenting can be less stressful when you're not struggling with your child's sensory systems.

Sensory Parenting from Newborns to Toddlers

Everything Is Easier When Your Child's Senses Are Happy!

Britt Collins, MS, OTR/L & Jackie Olson
978-1-935567-22-6
$19⁹⁵

Organized and combined parenting information along with sensory integration methods, tips, and solutions. We've made it easy and fun and will help you avoid a lot of unnecessary battles between you and your child. It's amazing how quickly our children adapt and the little adjustments that can make our days smoother. Beginning with your baby's birth, Britt and Jackie walk parents through everyday situations and duties all the way through your child's early stages of development—the first five years. They explain the underlying reasons beneath your child's negative behaviors and the often simple fixes.

Bulleted lists offer over 200 dos and don'ts, along with more than 50 real-life examples. Learn how to gauge "readiness," dissolve fears of the bathroom, teach how to use toilet paper, flush and wash up, and deal with toileting in unfamiliar environments.

What I Wish I'd Known about Raising a Child with Autism

A Mom and a Psychologist Offer Heartfelt Guidance for the First Five Years

Bobbi Sheahan &
Kathy DeOrnellas, PhD
978-1-935274-23-0

$14⁹⁵

Bobbi Sheahan, mother of a child with autism, and psychologist Kathy DeOrnellas, PhD, offer themselves as your scouts in the field of ASD. They have valuable information to share, from the moment you realize your kid is different (My, what a quiet baby I have!), to the self-righteous moms on the playground, to holding your marriage together and the realm of routines.

Special Diets for Special Kids, Volumes 1 & 2 Combined

Over 200 REVISED and NEW Gluten-Free Casein-Free Recipes, Plus Research on the Positive Effects for Children with Autism, ADHD, Allergies, Celiac Disease, and More!

Lisa Lewis, PhD | 978-1-935274-12-4 | $29⁹⁵

Praised as a modern-day classic by celebrities and readers all over the world, the first edition of Special Diets for Special Kids has been helping children and adults with autism, ADHD, celiac disease, and other disorders since 1998. Special Diets for Special Kids 2 followed up in 2001 by providing more recipes and updated research.

Now, this revised and expanded edition offers both books in one, complete with the latest research, revised recipes, and color photos throughout!

The first part of the book describes dietary intervention in detail, from both a scientific and a personal approach (the author's son has autism and has been on a GFCF diet for many years). In a nutshell, certain enzymes are required to break down gluten and casein. If those enzymes don't function well, or are not present at sufficient levels, serious neurological problems can result. Studies have shown that children with autism have a marked deficiency of these enzymes, which may explain why GFCF diets have yielded positive results for many children.

The second part of the book is an easy-to-follow cookbook. This section contains nearly 200 recipes, including many you would have never thought possible on a GFCF diet.

Sensory Yoga for Kids

Therapeutic Movement for Children of All Abilities

Britt Collins, MS, OTR/L | 978-1-935567-48-6 | $14⁹⁵

This book shows how to use yoga to bring calm and focus (and exercise!) to kids with special needs. Childhood is a time filled with new motor challenges and hurdles; and this is doubly true for kids with autism and other special needs. The motor challenges kids face require strength, coordination, and the ability to focus and attend. Yoga can help kids with these challenges as it can strengthen their bodies while calming. This book demonstrates how to get kids started with the discipline that so many of us use in our daily lives. Occupational therapist Britt Collins tells how to use yoga to support special needs, increasing body awareness and fine tune coordination skills.

Visual Techniques for Developing Social Skills

Activities and Lesson Plans for Teaching Children with High-Functioning Autism and Asperger's Syndrome

Rebecca Moyes, MEd
978-1-935274-51-3
$14⁹⁵

Social skills instruction for K-8th grade children on the autism spectrum requires an emphasis on visuals, or "show-teaching" techniques, rather than language-based instruction. This book fulfills that need, consisting of easy-to-use, step-by-step lesson plans with a wealth of visual tools and aids for teaching children with high-functioning autism and Asperger's syndrome.

Building Sensory Friendly Classrooms to Support Children with Challenging Behaviors

Rebecca Moyes, MEd
978-1-935567-23-3
$19⁹⁵

Rebecca Moyes helps walk any regular education or special education teacher through the process of setting up a sensory-friendly classroom in this easy-to-use book. This is currently the only book that discusses the importance of data-driven strategies, and then helps teachers implement them! Sensory integration disorder often presents as a behavioral problem; thus, although it's an internal state, it has to be addressed based on what observable behaviors are seen in the child.

Basic Skills Checklists

Teacher-Friendly Assessment for Children with Autism or Special Needs

Marlene Breitenbach
978-1-932565-75-1

$19⁹⁵

This book is an easy-to-use, informal tool that brings method to the madness of classroom assessment. Author and teacher Marlene Breitenbach developed these helpful checklists in special-needs and inclusive classrooms while serving children with autism and other developmental disabilities. Simple, customizable charts make it easy to record progress in areas such as basic concepts, reading/language, math, fine motor, and independence skills. Great for one-on-one or group assessment!

Autism & Reading Comprehension

Ready-to-Use Lesson Plans for Teachers

Joseph Porter, MEd
978-1-935274-15-5

$29⁹⁵

The predictable format, repetition, and routine of these lessons will create a relaxed learning environment, while the variations in the topics will hold students' attention and help them generalize the reading skills they need to succeed! Special educator Joseph Porter has developed an amazing 90 hours of animal-themed, whole-group instruction with ready-to-go lesson plans! Comes with downloadable forms.

Understanding Asperger's Syndrome FAST FACTS

A Guide for Teachers and Educators to Address the Needs of the Student

Emily Burrows & Sheila Wagner, MEd
978-1-932565-15-7 | $9⁹⁵

This guide will quickly provide teachers a better understanding of Asperger's and help students have a richer, more enjoyable educational experience. The authors, who are also educators, describe signs to watch for and offer numerous tips for appropriate modifications.

School Shadow Guidelines

Jed Baker, PhD &
Alex Liao Whatt Meng
978-1-941765-11-1

$14⁹⁵

This book helps guide your child to develop appropriate behaviors in school, strengthen academic ability, and build his/her social interaction skills. Special needs children can benefit from having inclusive education to aid in their development and growth; this is where school shadowing serves vital roles.

Each student, each story has important lessons infused. Follow Jim's teaching history from an integrated university school, to a center for special needs students, and back to a regular middle and high school. You're in for a wild ride!

Keys to Success for Teaching Students with Autism

An Easy-to-Follow Guide for Teachers

Lori Ernsperger
978-1-885477-92-7 | $24⁹⁵

After over 17 years of working with teachers struggling to implement an effective learning program for special needs kids, Dr. Lori Ernsperger wrote this book as a practical, step-by-step guide to educating students with autism. This much-needed resource unlocks the secrets of six critical teaching elements: creating an effective environment, curriculum development, instructional strategies, managing problem behaviors, data collection, and building collaborative teams. Perfect for new and veteran teachers!

Autism and the Power of Music

A New Approach to Help Your Child Connect and Communicate

Yasmine White with Sonia Belasco | 978-1-949177-72-5 | $19⁹⁵

NEW

Music can help you and your child communicate and connect in new ways. We all want to connect. Connection grows when you and your child feel safe. Your child wants to feel safe. Your child wants to feel success. Your child wants to connect with others. The techniques described in this book took decades to develop, and studies have shown them to be remarkably effective. These simple music-based tools can help you create safe and powerful moments where you and your child both grow and connect.

Reaching the Child with Autism through Art

Practical, Fun Activities to Enhance Motor Skills and Improve Tactile and Concept Awareness

Toni Flowers
978-1-885477-23-1
$19⁹⁵

Art encourages communication, positive self-image, concept development, spatial relationships, fine-motor skills, and many more facets of healthy childhood development. In this book, Toni Flowers provides dozens of artistic activities that will delight children with autism. The Color of Autism

Methods to Reach and Educate Children on the Autism Spectrum

Toni Flowers
978-1-885477-57-6
$19⁹⁵

Voted "Teacher of the Year" by ASA, Toni Flowers invites readers to learn from, tweak, and refine the strategies she's used during her quarter-century of teaching children with autism. Chock-full of great ideas, this book tackles some of the thorniest problems ("runners," homework, "screamers," setting limits, aggression, etc.) facing teachers and parents. It will quickly become a "go-to" book in your library!

Music Therapy

Another Path to Learning and Understanding for Children on the Autism Spectrum

Betsey King, MMT, MT-BC | 978-1-885477-53-8 | $19⁹⁵

Music can break down barriers for children with autism in areas such as cognition, communication, and socialization. While music therapists are experienced professionals, many of the principles of music therapy can be implemented by other therapists, teachers, and parents. This book explains how you can do this and teaches you how to adapt music to meet a child's needs. Visual aids and already-written songs will get you started!

A November 2017 study led by art therapist Celine Schweizer found that, broadly, "art therapy could have an effect on reducing behavioral problems of children with autism in specific problem areas, including social communicative behavior, flexibility, and self-image."

How to Teach Life Skills to Kids with Autism or Asperger's

Jennifer McIlwee Myers
978-1-935274-13-1

$19⁹⁵

No matter how high-functioning children with autism or Asperger's may be or may become, they function better as adults if they've had the chance to learn basic skills, from being on time to good personal hygiene. But many reach adulthood without those skills. Enter Jennifer McIlwee Myers, Aspie at Large. Coauthor of the groundbreaking book Asperger's and Girls, Jennifer's personal experience with Asperger's syndrome and having a brother with autism makes her perspective doubly insightful.

Autism ... What Does It Mean to Me?

A Workbook about Self-Awareness and Life Lessons for Kids with Autism or Asperger's

Catherine Faherty
978-1-935274-91-9

$34⁹⁵

This is a book that will never become irrelevant or "outdated." Every child who uses it also becomes its "coauthor." Each chapter is divided in two parts: the first part—the "Workbook"—is for the child to complete, by writing "What is True for Me" in lists of simple statements. The second part—"For Parents and Teachers"—contains helpful tips/information for the adult who guides him through the exercises.

Understanding Death and Illness and What They Teach about Life

Catherine Faherty
978-1-932565-56-0

$24⁹⁵

Finally, family members and professionals have true guidance for these difficult, but necessary, conversations. Author Catherine Faherty offers detailed, concrete explanations of illness, dying, life after death, losing a pet, and numerous other issues. Her descriptions are written with such care, caregivers themselves will be comforted by her words. Communication Forms include learners in the conversation, allowing them to share personal experiences, thoughts, and concerns. An invaluable resource!

There's a Boy in Here Emerging from the Bonds of Autism

Judy Barron & Sean Barron
978-1-949177-39-8

$16⁹⁵

In this inspiring updated and revised edition, Sean Barron provides a view from inside the mind of autism in this dual autobiography written in point-counterpoint style by Sean and his mother, Judy Barron. As a young person, Sean felt "isolated and desperately unhappy." Then, at seventeen, he experienced a breakthrough that began his release from autism. Discover how he was able to become a successful journalist, have a strong relationship with his girlfriend, and live a full and independent life.

Communication: What Does It Mean to Me?

Catherine Faherty
978-1-935274-17-9

$19⁹⁵

Misunderstandings can result from a mismatched style of communicating! Life can be frustrating for individuals who cannot effectively relate their thoughts or needs. This unique, user-friendly "Contract for Communication" features easy-to-follow "agreements" for both young people on the spectrum and the adults in their lives—parents, teachers, therapists—so they can better understand one another!

Taking Care of Myself

A Hygiene, Puberty, and Personal Curriculum for Young People with Autism

Mary Wrobel
978-1-885477-94-1

$24⁹⁵

Puberty can be especially tough when young people have autism or other special needs. Through simple stories, author Mary Wrobel teaches caregivers exactly what to say and not say, and shows how you can create helpful stories of your own. Mary addresses hygiene, modesty, body development, menstruation, touching, personal safety, and more. Young students can benefit from self-care skills such as using the toilet, brushing teeth, and washing hands.

Comics for Social & Communicative Behavior

Vera Bernard-Opitz
978-1-949177-67-1
$16⁹⁵

NEW

During the first years in school, children need to develop social and communicative skills and good values. While there are plenty of teaching programs on the “Three Rs” it is not easy to find curricula for social behavior and character development. This workbook provides a clear teaching sequence on eight long-term objectives, such as being reliable, authentic, empathetic, self-controlled, and a good team player. Over 130 cartoons depict daily problem situations and possible solutions. While making good value choices children learn at the same time to become competent communicators.

Awkward

The Social Dos and Don'ts of Being a Young Adult

Katie Saint, LPC, BCBA &
Carlos Torres, BS
978-1-941765-79-1
$12⁹⁵

This book breaks down various social situations to help provide tips on socially acceptable behavior. Each situation includes examples of dos and don'ts to target different perspectives and learning styles. Each scenario includes simple visuals that demonstrate one positive and one negative possibility in the given situation. A script of a possible outcome is provided to help facilitate roleplaying activities or to help to give an example of socially appropriate discussion on the topic.

Taking Care of Myself 2 For Teenagers & Young Adults with ASD

Mary Wrobel
978-1-941765-30-2
$24⁹⁵

Teenagers and young adults with ASD typically want what everyone in their age group wants. Being able to fit in, being as independent as possible, and developing friendships and intimate relationships are important to individuals with ASD. Important topics include staying healthy, anxiety, depression, feeling suicidal, social media, sexual harassment, and even rape. This book also provides advice to handle dressing for different events, feeling anxious in social situations, and public versus private behaviors.

Independent Living with Autism

Your Roadmap to Success

Wendela Whitcomb Marsh, MA,
BCBA, RSD
978-1-949177-04-6 | $19⁹⁵

This book follows five fictional characters on the autism spectrum—ranging from a high school senior to a newly diagnosed grandparent—through realistic scenarios and challenges. Dr. Wendela Whitcomb Marsh breaks down the four main areas that adults on the spectrum may find challenging: housing, independence, recreation, and employability, with practical and achievable solutions for each.

The “Do or Do Not” Outlook

77 Steps to Living an Extraordinary Life

Nick Maley | 978-1-949177-07-7
$16⁹⁵

This book presents a life-changing mindset that is an indispensable aid to personal growth. It's a Jedi's guide to self-empowerment! Nick Maley, renowned as “That Yoda Guy” for his involvement in the Star Wars original trilogy, turns traditional wisdom on its head as he examines the fears and obstacles that discourage us from reaching for the stars. Each page shares a pointer that mentors readers day-by-day toward living their dreams.

Stuff You Need to Know

A Guide for Young Adults with Autism

Patricia Weaver, BS, PA
978-1-941765-91-3 | $16⁹⁵

Is your child with autism getting ready to live on their own? This guide can help kids and young adults with autism learn the most basic skills to achieve independence. This workbook covers beginner-level tasks such as practicing good hygiene and getting ready independently, following a recipe to make lunch, using technology and social media safely, and more!

The Aspie Teen's Survival Guide

Candid Advice for Teens, Tweens, and Parents

J.D. Kraus
978-1-935274-16-2

$19⁹⁵

The teenage years are a time when being social is the #1 priority for kids. But for kids with Asperger's, who have acute social challenges, these years can be the most difficult, confusing time in their lives. From sensory sensitivity to awkwardness, dating to driving, he tackles it all! Parents and teachers will love seeing life through J.D.'s eyes, plus "Notes to Parents" sections offer great advice for caregivers and educators alike.

The Original S.T.A.R.S. Guidebook for Older Teens and Adults, 2nd Edition

Social Skills Training Guide for Teaching Assertiveness, Relationship Skills & Sexual Awareness

Susan Heighway, MS, PNP-BC, APNP
& Susan Kidd Webster, MSSW, ISW
978-1-949177-89-3 | $24⁹⁵

JULY

Specially designed for teaching adolescents and adults with developmental disabilities, the STARS model focuses on four areas: Understanding Relationships, Social Interaction, Sexual Awareness, and Assertiveness, with the goals of promoting positive sexuality and preventing sexual abuse. Assessment tools help identify the strengths and needs of each individual, and then the activities can be catered to address specific needs.

Developing Talents

Careers for Individuals with Asperger's Syndrome and High-Functioning Autism

Temple Grandin, PhD & Kate Duffy
978-1-934575-28-4 | $15⁹⁵

This career planning guide is written specifically for high-functioning adolescents and young adults on the autism spectrum, their families, teachers, and counselors. Authors Dr. Temple Grandin and Kate Duffy introduce step-by-step processes for the job search. They discuss the impact ASD has in the workplace, sensory problems, turning special interests into paid work, jobs that are particularly suited to individuals on the spectrum, and much more.

The Aspie College, Work & Travel Survival Guide

J. D. Kraus
978-1-941765-12-8

$19⁹⁵

The main objective of this book is to assist young individuals with Asperger's and autism to overcome the big leap from high school to life outside of public education. The time right after high school can be a very frightening experience. What a person decides from this point on ultimately affects the rest of his or her life. This book is not intended to tell the reader what to do with his/her life. Rather, its focus is on helping them transition, prepare, and hopefully succeed in whatever their future endeavors may prove to be, primarily higher education and work.

S.T.A.R.S. 2

Relationship Building & Sexual Awareness for Kids with Autism

Susan Heighway, MS, PNP-BC, APNP
& Susan Kidd Webster, MSSW, ISW
978-0-986067-32-7 | $24⁹⁵

STARS 2 is an adapted version of the original STARS guidebook that is focused on school-aged children. The STARS 2 model concentrates on four areas: Understanding Relationships, Social Skills Training, Sexual Awareness, and Assertiveness, with the goals of promoting positive sexuality and preventing sexual abuse. Assessment tools help identify the strengths and needs of each individual, and then the activities can be catered to address specific needs.

101 Positive Steps Toward Employment and Independence for Young Adults with Autism

Lisa Tew, MS, CCC-SLP
978-1-941765-15-9

$17⁹⁵

Employers are looking for employees who are positive. Employers may list specific "hard" or technical skills that they want an employee to have for a particular job, but surveys show that employers are actively seeking people who have positive "soft skills." Employers want to hire someone who can work in harmony with others, someone who can communicate and respond socially to customers, coworkers, and supervisors with positivity.

Diagnosing Jefferson

Evidence of a Condition That Guided His Beliefs, Behavior, and Personal Associations

Norm Ledgin

978-1-941765-99-9 | $16⁹⁵

Historians have long remarked on Thomas Jefferson's "peculiarities." But it took author Norm Ledgin, whose son has Asperger's syndrome, to see what others did not. Ledgin carefully constructs a convincing case for the likelihood that Thomas Jefferson had Asperger's. He matches Jefferson's behaviors with five diagnostic criteria: social impairment, preoccupation with "special interests," impairment in nonverbal communication, lack of emotional reciprocity, and inflexible adherence to nonfunctional routines. A fascinating read!

Asperger's and Self-Esteem

Insight and Hope through Famous Role Models

Norm Ledgin

978-1-935274-62-9

$19⁹⁵

In this unique title, Norm Ledgin introduces twelve high-achieving role models—including Einstein, Mozart, and Darwin—who have made significant contributions to our world. All exhibited traits common to people with Asperger's: loners, self-taught, obsessed by an idea, and known for their lack of social skills. Today's young people and adults with AS can also make a difference if they are given support and the freedom to explore their abilities.

Autism-Asperger's & Sexuality

Puberty and Beyond

Jerry Newport & Mary Newport
978-1-885477-88-0

$19⁹⁵

Many people on the spectrum suffer from "information deficit" when it comes to sex. Jerry and Mary Newport wrote this book to remedy that. The couple offers uncensored advice on sex and relationships from building self-confidence, dating, and dealing with rejection to establishing an intimate relationship, avoiding pregnancy and STDs, and initiating sex with a partner. This is an "everything you ever wanted to know" kind of book! Parental guidance recommended.

Autism and Employment

Raising Your Child with Foundational Skills for the Future

Lisa Tew & Diane Zajac

978-1-941765-81-4 | $19⁹⁵

According to an Easter Seals survey, parents of children who have ASD were most worried about their children having independence in adulthood. Quality of life, fitting into society, and employment were also top concerns. Your knowledge of your child, your devotion, and your many varied experiences with your child, make you the ideal coach. This book was written to help you, the parent, to raise your child with the foundational skills he or she will need for the future.

Your Life Is Not a Label

A Guide to Living Fully with Autism and Asperger's Syndrome for Parents, Professionals, and You

Jerry Newport
978-1-885477-77-4

$19⁹⁵

Jerry Newport wrote this book for those with developmental disorders, but it resonates with people with any disability. His message: everyone has the power—and the right—to improve the quality of their lives despite their disability. His candid, heartfelt advice stems from a deep sense of caring for "his people" on the spectrum.

Asperger's on the Job

Must-Have Advice for People with Asperger's or High Functioning Autism

Rudy Simone

978-1-935274-09-4

$19⁹⁵

Up to 85% of the Asperger's population are without full-time jobs, though many have above-average intelligence. Rudy Simone, an adult with Asperger's syndrome, offers candid advice based on her personal experiences and the experiences of over 50 adults with Asperger's from all over the world. Detailed lists of "what the employee can do" and "to employers and advocates" provide balanced guidelines for success, while Rudy's "Interview Tips" and "Personal Job Map" tools will help Aspergians find employment that works for them!

I Have an Autism BOOST!

Jennifer Gilpin Yacio | 978-1-949177-76-3 | $16⁹⁵

NEW

This book celebrates all that is special about each individual, then explains the benefits of that extra autism boost. There are a thousand books that describe how kids with autism are different, how they can communicate better, how they can adapt to our world. Here's one that focuses on what is awesome about autism. Here you have a kid's book that celebrates the honesty, creativity, integrity, and brilliant logic that the autism boost brings.

Clementine's Great Big Uh-Ohs!

Edie Lau | 978-1-949177-52-7 | $12⁹⁵

The night before Clementine's birthday she makes sure that there will be absolutely no UH-OHs with her perfect party plans. Unfortunately, a series of disasters strike. After a monstrous meltdown, Clementine discovers something remarkable about her dreaded UH-OHs and about herself! Clementine's journey is a relatable, funny, heartwarming story that invites kids to take a safe step closer to understanding and managing anxiety with confidence.

Temple Did It, and I Can, Too!

Temple Did It, and I Can, Too!

Seven Simple Life Rules

Jennifer Gilpin Yacio | 978-1-935567-52-3 | $14⁹⁵

Here is a children's book that will help guide and inspire all kids to reach their full potential. Temple Did It, and I Can, Too! explains the obstacles Temple Grandin faced while growing up, then gives the rules she followed to overcome them and become a leading animal scientist. Includes worksheets for kids to identify and reach their goals. Introduction by Dr. Temple Grandin.

Manners Matter!

Veronica Zysk | 978-1-941765-59-3 | $12⁹⁵

Temple Grandin turns her attention to kids in this colorful, warm, and friendly book about manners and why they're important. According to Temple, "manners matter." They open the door to social interactions, help us get along with others, and affect how people think and feel about us. In her usual straightforward way, Temple talks about everyday manners such as: "please" and "thank you," table manners, manners in public, and so much more! Let Temple be your child's guide in learning that manners really do matter!

Special People, Special Ways

Arlene Maguire | 978-1-885477-65-1 | $14⁹⁵

Winner of an iParenting Media Award, this book illustrates that beyond our physical limitations is a world of unique gifts for each of us to share. Arlene Maguire's rhymes and Sheila Bailey's vivid illustrations portray positive images of children with various disabilities. Teachers and parents love to read this book aloud to promote understanding and tolerance at school and at home.

Squirmy Wormy

How I Learned to Help Myself

Lynda Farrington Wilson | 978-1-935567-18-9 | $14⁹⁵

Squirmy Wormy is about a boy named Tyler, who has autism and SPD. Together with Tyler, the reader learns about SPD and what everyday easy therapies he can do by himself to feel better. For instance: "I feel like running really fast, run run run! Maybe I just need a s-q-u-e-e-z-e between the couch cushions like a hot dog. Whew! I feel better."

My Friend with Autism, Enhanced Edition

Beverly Bishop | 978-1-949177-50-3 | $14⁹⁵

This book will foster tolerance and understanding among peers, while the printable coloring pages will enlighten and engage learners! My Friend with Autism is the exceptional result of parent Beverly Bishop's determination to educate her son's classmates about autism, thus helping her son fit in at school. A peer narrator explains that his friend with autism is good at some things and not so good at others—just like everyone else!

My Special Brother Bo

Britt E. Collins | 978-1-941765-92-0 | $9⁹⁵

When your sibling has special needs, life can get a little confusing! Lucy is a sweet girl who loves her younger brother Bo but does not always understand why he gets special treatment. Through this sweet story of love and acceptance, siblings of children with special needs will hear that they are loved AND learn how to help their sibling grow.

In My World

Jillian Ma | 978-1-941765-43-2 | $9⁹⁵

A simple, heartfelt story that follows the life of a child with autism through his imaginative journey as he seeks to be accepted, loved, and celebrated for his strengths and abilities. Despite the qualities that make children on the autism spectrum exceptional, they all have hopes, dreams, and feelings of belonging that all children desire. This book is a powerful reminder that with a little help from each of us, children with autism can fulfill their dreams.

Ellie Bean, the Drama Queen!

How Ellie Learned to Keep Calm and Not Overreact

Jennie Harding | 978-1-935567-27-1 | $9⁹⁵

This cute children's book helps explain some bizarre or "dramatic" behavior, and gives easy sensory answers to parents and teachers. Written by a mom and special education teacher, this story shows what it is like to grow up with sensory issues, and helps kids understand that they are not alone. By the end of the story, Ellie learns how to cope with her issues and stop being such a drama queen ... but she does keep her crown.

Who Took My Shoe?

Discovering Who, What, Where, When, Why and How

Karen Emigh | 978-1-885477-95-8 | $11⁹⁵

Karen Emigh's son Brett—the "star" of all three of her books—was diagnosed with autism when he was six. Each book teaches an aspect of language that children on the spectrum often struggle with. In her first book, Brett and his dog Herman search for Brett's missing shoe. While subtly teaching the concepts of who, what, where, when, why, and how, this book will entertain all children.

Herman's Hiding Places

Discovering Up, In, Under, and Behind

Karen Emigh | 978-1-935274-61-2 | $11⁹⁵

In this book, Karen teaches the concepts behind prepositions. Brett and his dog Herman play hide-and-seek, and Brett is "it." Young readers will learn the meaning and uses of the prepositions up, in, under, and behind as they follow Brett on his search for Herman. Kids love to find Herman on each page!

Bookworm

Discovering Idioms, Sayings, and Expressions

Karen Emigh | 978-1-935274-88-9 | $11⁹⁵

"This book sells like hotcakes!" If you understood what that means, you just interpreted an idiom. The third book in Karen Emigh's series, Bookworm introduces young readers to the world of idioms, narrated by Brett and his helpful dog, Herman. Playful dialogue, clear explanations, and colorful images make figurative language understandable and fun.

The Bobby and Mandeel Safety Book Series

Bobby and Mandeel's safety books may well be the most important picture books you will ever share with your children. Learn the best ways to deal with strangers, personal space, abuse, and bullying. The author has served as a Deputy Sheriff.
