

Animals in Translation

Using the Mysteries of Autism to Decode Animal Behavior

Temple Grandin, PhD & Catherine Johnson 978-0-156031-44-8 $1595

Temple discusses how being a visual thinker gave her insights into animal behavior. The book will help you understand from the animals' point of view why they act and react the way they do. She draws upon a long, distinguished career as an animal scientist and her own experiences with autism to deliver an extraordinary message about how animals act, think, and feel. People with autism can often think the way animals think, putting them in the perfect position to translate "animal talk."

TEMPLE GRANDIN

AUTHOR OF ANIMALS IN TRANSLATION
WITH A FOREWORD BY DLIVER SACKS

In this unprecedented book, Temple delivers a report from the country of autism. Writing from the dual perspectives of a scientist and a person with autism, she tells us how that country is experienced by its inhabitants and how she managed to breach its boundaries to function in the outside world. What emerges in this book is the document of an extraordinary human being: one who, in gracefully and lucidly bridging the gulf between her condition and our own, sheds light on the riddle of our common identity.

Calling All Minds

How To Think and Create Like an Inventor

Temple Grandin, PhD 978-1-524738-20-4 $18⁹⁹

Have you ever wondered what makes a kite fly or a boat float? Have you ever thought about why snowflakes are symmetrical, or why golf balls have dimples? In this book, Temple Grandin explores the ideas behind all of those questions and more. She delves into the science behind inventions, the steps various people took to create and improve upon ideas as they evolved, and the ways in which young inventors can continue to think about and understand what it means to tinker, to fiddle, and to innovate.

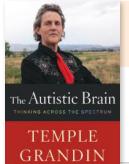

Unwritten Rules of Social Relationships

Decoding Social Mysteries through the Unique Perspectives of Autism

Temple Grandin, PhD & Sean Barron 978-1-941765-38-8 $1995

Born with autism, authors Temple Grandin and Sean Barron now live successful social lives—but their paths were very different. Temple's logical mind led her to obey social rules, while Sean's emotions controlled his social behavior. Baffled by social rules, he made up his own, and applied them to others. Whether you are a person with autism or a caregiver in the autism community, their powerful stories will captivate you.

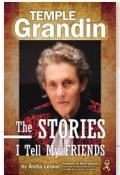

The Autistic Brain Thinking Across the Spectrum

Temple Grandin, PhD & Richard Panek 978-0-544-2277-36 $1595

Weaving her own experience with remarkable new discoveries, Temple introduces the neuroimaging advances and genetic research that link brain science to behavior. She also highlights long-ignored sensory problems and the transformative effects we can have by treating autism symptom by symptom, rather than with an umbrella diagnosis. Most exciting, she shows us new ways to foster the unique contributions of children on the spectrum.

Emergence: Labeled Autistic

A True Story

Temple Grandin, PhD 978-0-446671-82-8 $1500

A true story that is both uniquely moving and exceptionally inspiring, Emergence is the first-hand account of a courageous woman with autism who beat the odds and cured herself. As a child, Temple was forced to leave her "normal" school and enroll in a school for children with autism. This searingly honest account captures the isolation and fears suffered by those with autism and their families and the quiet strength of one woman who insisted on a miracle.
